MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, National Intelligence Council

FROM: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Global Economic Issues

This is a draft of an estimate on seeking to define the opportunities and the dangers which may be before us in the economic arena. The attached papers will show the origin of this effort. It is a first step and much needs to be done with it. It has not yet been scheduled as an estimate and I would like your views as to where it should go from here.
